

I can't believe my privacy is not important. I have a private line and was still receiving calls until this law and now I have the right to choose who I will give my phone number. Don't I have any rights?

I pay for the phone service and should be able to choose who I want to receive calls from.